YANKS DETHRONE INDIANS; WIN BY SCORE OF 6 TO 3

Locals, by Annexing Contest Shortened by Downpour, Regain Lead.

SPEAKER AND HIGH STAR: SHAWKEY DOES WELL

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

Just a little something was saved out of the wreckage of the Cleveland series on the Polo Grounds yesterday, when the Yankees repulsed the Phils in the last quarter of the six game set, the home lead winning 6 to 3. A steady rain, which had washed down on the diamond gladiators from the fifth inning to the eighth, in addition to inky black skies, brought the fray to a close in the eighth inning, just as the Clevelanders were putting over a flock of hitless runs.

The abbreviated win lifted the Yanks back to the apex of the American League, but their margin is slight—a mere half game. Lee Pohl added a home run yesterday, and the Yankees have two and a half games behind the Gotham pace setters, with his star gunner, Guy Morton, laid up for repairs, and went away with four out of six games, after tomahawking two entire games for the Yankee lead.

For quite a spell it did not look as though the Yankees would be able to do anything but lose. The Indians, in their activities in Harlem yesterday afternoon, around game time the skies had a steel gray shade, and the clouds threatened to tumble into confusion at any moment. The management waited for about ten minutes for them to tumble, and when they didn't the game was started.

Shawkey vs. Kieffer.

Bob Shawkey and Ed Kieffer, who matched their skill in the opening tiff of the series, put on a return bout yesterday and this time Buzzy Bob was the victor. Shawkey really pitched a better game when he lost, and he was saved by darkness yesterday. The Indians were starting to get aboard his service when it became so dark they could no longer see his speeder as it zipped through the raindrops. In the fourth, and fifth and sixth innings they fanned. Bob pretty hard, cramming eight hefty puns into three frames. He was lucky to escape with three runs, but he finished strong, fanning the side in the eighth.

Kieffer, the Penn State alumnus and former Yank, was relieved by Coveleskie, as was the case in the first game. The Yanks crept up on Eddie during the sixth inning shower and blew him from the hill. Early in the game Kieffer was as lucky as a Mexican peon who gets three square meals a day. With men on bases in the first and second rounds, Peck and Walters whaled terrific line drives at the Indians, inflicting, bringing about two double plays, and a home run. Coveleskie did not start a game during the series, but he finished three, and yesterday was the only time the Yankee did not pitch up to the regular Clevelanders. Stanley seemed unable to get hold of the wet ball and passed three, and made a wild pitch.

Yankers Score in First.

Donovan's cohorts drew a run in the first inning, and had drive by Peck once six inches to either side of Turner. Philadelphia, in the first round, was the first. Wamoy fumbled Hartzell's infield skimmer, and Hugh singled the ancient warrior to second. Peck's clout went to Turner as a change off of a center, but the Indians' Foxy Grandpa squeezed it, and then doubled Hugh off first. Pipp spun a single to left, which drove home Hartzell. Walters, who had been in the home run maker, rolled to short.

Cleveland passed New York with two markers in the fourth. Speaker hit one. Boone, who had been out, came back and Tristram, the Terrible, beat the throw to first. The Texan cove puncher galloped home when Elmer Smith pounded a single over his head. In the fifth, Daily singled and was forced by Kieffer. Graney banged a hit into right and Kieffer, who had been out, came back and Tristram, the Terrible, beat the throw to first. The Texan cove puncher galloped home when Elmer Smith pounded a single over his head. In the fifth, Daily singled and was forced by Kieffer.

Locals Clinch Game.

It looked as though Cleveland would win another, but the Yankees, who had their backs in the sixth and they had the game won in a jiffy. Hartzell, the patient, drew four balls, and Hughie Huh brought in the first pitch to right. Peck punted a stanch hit to center, and Speaker moved aside to let Smith field it. However, it hopped by Elmer and continued to the fence for a triple. Hartzell and Hugh carrying home the tying runs.

Fohl came out and shoofed Kieffer away, and the Indians were introduced for the third time during the series. Pipp lifted Brother Stan's first pitch to Speaker in far centre and through Tris made a remarkable throw home. Peck scored by a few feet. Baker rolled to the infield and Magee drove Peck in with a sacrifice fly. Chapman made a two base hit heaven on Boone, Pipp scoring, and then Hildebrand mumbled the stuff was off and made a dash for shelter. Ty Cobb and other Tigers play a double header with the Yanks in Harlem today. The score:

ROBERTSON'S HITTING FEATURES CINCY TILTS

Dave Adds Six Bingles to His Collection, One a Circuit Drive—Giants Beaten by Herzog's Crew, 7 to 4, After Annexing First Game of Twin Bill, 5 to 2.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 13.—The Giants were forced to accept an even break with the relentless Redlanders again here today, losing to the Herzogians, 7 to 4, after they took the first game of a double header by a score of 5 to 2. The second game was the first one the Giants have lost in Garry Hermann's ballclub this year and came after McGraw's men had put over six straight victories in Redland Field.

The feature of the double header was the terrific clouting of Demos Dave Robertson, the Virginian adding six hits to his already large collection and the half dozen fence safeties should be sufficient to put quite a little daylight between Dave and Jake Daubert of Brooklyn. Dave scored five runs in each game, one of the bingles in the early game being a drive for the circuit. Dave also scored four runs. Doyle helping him to run three times in the early game. In the first game, Capt. Larry hit a single and drew a pass, while in the second game he drove out a triple, a double and a single. Even Mike Doohan blew himself to triple and two singles in the first game.

Reds Also Close Ball.

However, the Giants did not do all the hitting. As the Reds outdid them by a slight margin in each game, the Cincy crew pounding out twenty-three hits in the two games. Herzog and Chase were the leading Cincy hitters again. "Charley" and Hal spinning out a pair of hits in the first game.

ZIMMERMAN'S HIT DEFEATS PHILLIES

Home Run Drive, with Flack on Base, Brings Victory to Cubs, 6 to 5.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Zimmerman's home run, scoring Flack ahead of him, enabled the Cubs to win a rugged game from Philadelphia today 6 to 5. Philadelphia's pinch hitters strung a three run rally in the ninth inning.

Vaughn pitched a great game up to the last inning. Bender was wild and poorly supported. Kelly, the Indianapolis recruit, fanned as a pinch hitter in the ninth. The score:

DOON RELEASED; OLDING SIGNED

Giants Send Veteran Catcher to the Rochester Internationals.

RUBE PLAYS TO-MORROW

By DANIEL.

Charley Doon yesterday reached the twilight of his baseball career. After nearly fifteen years of service in the National League the veteran catcher heard the Angelus ring and betook himself out of fast company. Doon was released by the Giants to the Rochester Internationals.

While his old pal Mickey Doohan was engaged in making three hits in the first game at Cincinnati Doon was busy packing his trunk. John McGraw found that Doon was slowing up very fast and that his batting eye, while never very keen, was also being too dimmed for the speed and cunning of National League pitching. It was just another case of youth being served.

Wendell Leaves out of the Big Show.

Lawrence Wendell, the Harlem product, made his entry as a real giant regular. Wendell had been on the ineligible list, but he was now cleared for duty on the active roster. Wendell and Brad Koehler will now have it out for the honor of being recognized as Bill Rariden's first understudy.

Manager of Phillies.

Doon had a long and honorable career in the National League. He broke into the game with the Phillies in 1902 and was their catcher for ten years. In 1910 he was appointed manager of the Phillies to succeed Billy Murray.

Doon's professional debut was made in 1898 with Indianapolis of the old Western League. The next season he was with Springfield. In 1900 he caught for the Fleischmann's team in the Catskill Mountains and later played with St. Joseph of the Western League.

In 1915 Doon went to Cincinnati in the deal that brought Bert Niehoff to the Phillies. Late in the season the giants got him with the waiver route. Doon's best year came in 1911, when he batted .325. This season he had done little catching, but had been coaching the pitchers. His release comes as a surprise.

Olding Signs With Yanks.

Rube Olding, the Shiloh, N. J. farmer, came to town yesterday and held a conference with Bill Donovan. Olding signed a contract to play with the Yankees and begged to be excused until tomorrow. Rube has not yet arranged for a manager to run his farm. Olding declared he would like to play with Donovan a helping hand, but that his return to the game was really and truly contrary to his innermost wishes.

The giants tied the score on Elmer in the fifth, and took the lead for a moment. The next man up in the fourth, he was taken out and replaced by Baron Kretzer.
